Whitehall, February 1.

Extract of a Letter from His Royal Highneſs the Duke of York to Mr. Secretary Dundas, dated Ghent, January 22, 1794.

I Received Yeſterday a Report from Lieutenant-General Count Kinſky, from Tournay, that on Monday the Enemy moved forwards, with Nine Hundred Infantry and One Hundred Cavalry, from Waterloo, and attacked the Poſt of Aelbecke, which at firſt was obliged to retire; but the Auſtrian Out-Poſts having immediately aſſembled, attacked the Enemy in Flank, and drove them completely back to the other Side of Waterloo. The Enemy's Loſs was Twenty-one Men killed, and One ſeverely wounded and taken Priſoner. The Auſtrians had only One Man killed, and One wounded.

Admiralty-Office, January 28, 1794.

Extract of a Letter from Captain Lucas, of His Majeſty's Ship Sphynx, to Mr. Stephens, dated Plymouth, the 21ſt Inſtant.

I Have the Honor to acquaint you, for the Information of my Lords Commiſſioners of the Admiralty, that, being on a Cruize off Cape Clear, on Sunday the 12th Inſtant, we ſaw a Sail to the Weſtward, ſtanding before the Wind: We tacked after her. At Noon ſhe bore up to croſs us, which was prevented. At Two P. M. ſhe began an unſucceſsful Fire, hoiſted the National Flag, and in about Ten or Twelve Minutes ſtruck to His Majeſty's Colours.

She proves to be La Trompeuſe, a National Brig, mounting 18 Six-Pounders, commanded by Monſ. Biller, a Second Captain, Three Lieutenants and 105 Men; quite a new Veſſel, Cutter built, and Stores complete for Three Months.

Dublin Caſtle, January 23.

THE Houſes of Lords and Commons having reſolved upon humble Addreſſes to His Majeſty, the ſame, together with Addreſſes from both Houſes to the Lord Lieutenant, were this Day preſented to His Excellency, and, with His Excellency's Anſwers, are as follow:

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to approach your Throne with the moſt faithful and affectionate Attachment tachment to your Majeſty's Royal Perſon, Family and Government.

The preſent miſerable State of France forms an inſtructive Contraſt to the Security and Freedom which we enjoy under our happy Conſtitution. The Lenity and equal Juſtice of our Laws, and the Mildneſs of your Majeſty's auſpicious Government, cannot fail to unite the People of Ireland in the moſt effectual Meaſures for the Maintenance of thoſe ineſtimable Bleſſings.

We ſincerely rejoice that the Spirit of Inſurrection, which was for ſome Time prevalent among ſome of the lower Orders of the People, is in general ſuppreſſed; and we truſt that, by the Continuance of that Wiſdom and Firmneſs which has been ſhewn by your Majeſty's Government, they will be preſerved in a due Senſe of Order, and that the Machinations of thoſe who may attempt to ſeduce them from their accuſtomed Loyalty will be defeated and puniſhed.

We are happy to find that the Eſtabliſhment of an effective Militia in this Kingdom has been carried ſucceſsfully into Execution. The beneficial Conſequences of that conſtitutional Force are already manifeſted.

We return your Majeſty our ſincere Thanks for the Appointment of Commiſſioners to execute the Office of your Majeſty's Treaſurer of the Exchequer in this Kingdom, in order that the Payment of the Civil Liſt granted to your Majeſty, and a regular Appropriation of the Revenue to diſtinct Services, may be carried into Execution in a Manner as conformable to the Practice of Great Britain as the relative Situation of this Kingdom will permit.

We ſhall continue our Attention and Encouragement to the Agriculture and Manufactures of Ireland, and particularly to the Linen Manufacture; and we ſhall give our accuſtomed Protection to the Proteſtant Charter Schools and other Inſtitutions of Public Utility.

We humbly offer our Congratulations to your Majeſty, that, by your Majeſty's Exertions, the Trade of the Empire has been protected, and the Reſources which the Enemy derived from their wealthy Colonies and extenſive Trade have been cut off; that ſeveral of their unjuſt Conqueſts have been recovered; and that many of their Fortreſſes are poſſeſſed by the Forces of your Majeſty and your Allies; whilſt the Attempts of France to weaken the Security of our happy Conſtitution have entirely failed.

Your Majeſty may confidently rely upon our firm Attachment and Loyalty; and we are determined ſtrenuouſly to reſiſt, with our Lives and Fortunes, the Efforts of our Enemies, in their deſperate Endeavours to ſubvert every Principle of ſocial Order, and to ſpread Confuſion and Anarchy through every Government in Europe.

When Peace can be obtained, without ſurrendering the Honor of your Majeſty's Crown, or ſacrificing the preſent and future Security of your People and of the reſt of Europe, we are ſatisfied of your Majeſty's Determination to exert yourſelf, in Conjunction with your Allies, to attain that deſirable Object.

We offer our ſincere Thanks to your Majeſty for continuing the Earl of Weſtmorland in the Government of this Kingdom. The Benefits which we have experienced under his Adminiſtration are Evidences of the faithful Repreſentations made by him to your Majeſty, and will animate our Zeal in co operating with his Exertions, under your Majeſty's Auſpices, for the Proſperity of Ireland.

John Gayer, D. Cler. Parl.

His Excellency the Lord Lieutenant's Anſwer.

I Will immediately tranſmit this dutiful and loyal Addreſs to be laid before His Majeſty.

To the KING's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Knights, Citizens and Burgeſſes, in Parliament aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Ireland, in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to approach your Majeſty with the warmeſt Aſſurances of our Affection and Loyalty, and with the moſt cordial Attachment to your Majeſty's Perſon, Family and Government.

We feel with ſenſible Satisfaction that the vain Hope of ſhaking the Stability of your Majeſty's Throne, or weakening the Security of our happy Conſtitution, which ſeems to have animated the French in their unprovoked Declaration of War, has entirely failed.

We beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty, that not only many of the unjuſt and oppreſſive Conqueſts of the French have been wreſted from them, but that the Forces of your Majeſty and of your Allies are in Poſſeſſion of many important Fortreſſes which belonged to them; and whilſt the Advantages which France derived from her extenſive Trade and opulent Colonies have been cut off, the Commerce of your Subjects has been generally protected by the Superiority of your Majeſty's Fleets.

We have ſeen with Satisfaction the Suppreſſion of thoſe Outrages and Inſurrections which ſo recently diſgraced ſome of the lower Orders of the People. We are ſenſible of the Vigor of your Majeſty's Government in checking thoſe Diſorders, and we ſhall continue our Exertions till this dangerous Spirit be finally extinguiſhed. We truſt that all future Attempts to ſeduce the lower Claſſes from their uſual Subordination and Loyalty will be defeated, and that the Inſtigators of ſuch Violences will be brought to condign Puniſhment.

We acknowledge the beneficial Effects of a National Militia, which has been ſo ſucceſsfully eſtabliſhed, whilſt it preſents the beſt Security againſt internal Diſturbance, it has afforded a conſiderable Augmentation to the general Force of the Empire.

We cannot ſufficiently expreſs our Acknowledgements to your Majeſty, for appointing a Commiſſion under the Great Seal to execute the Office of Lord High Treaſurer of Ireland, in order to guard the Payment of your Majeſty's Civil Liſt, and the ſtrict Appropriation of the Revenue to diſtinct Services.

We ſhall with Chearfulneſs grant ſuch Supplies, as the extraordinary Exigencies of the Times and the Honor of your Majeſty's Crown and Government ſhall require, knowing that we are engaged in a Conteſt for our Freedom, Property and Religion. We are ready to ſupport thoſe ineſtimable Bleſſings with our Lives and Fortunes.

We ſhall attend with due Regard to the great Intereſts of Agriculture, Commerce and Manufactures, and particularly to the Linen Manufacture, and we ſhall ſupport the Proteſtant Charter Schools, and the other Public Inſtitutions which are committed to our Protection, with accuſtomed Liberality.

We ſincerely thank your Majeſty for your gracious Reliance upon the Loyalty and Attachment of your People of Ireland. We ſhould be indeed inſenſible of that Happineſs which we enjoy under the mild Spirit of our Religion, and the temperate Adminiſtration of a juſt Government, if we were not ſtrenuouſly reſolved to reſiſt thoſe Attacks which threaten the Subverſion of every Principle that gives Security to our Perſons and Properties; and when we conſider the deſperate Deſigns of thoſe Men, who are endeavouring to plunge every Government of Europe in Confuſion and Anarchy, and to erect their own Power on the Ruins of Law and Order, your Majeſty muſt be aſſured of our determined Reſolution to ſupport your Majeſty's Efforts in averting ſuch dreadful Calamities from your faithful People.

We are highly gratified with your gracious Declaration from the Throne, that your Majeſty's Object is Peace; and that you will exert yourſelf, in Conjunction with your Allies, whenever that deſirable Object can be obtained, without ſurrendering the Honour of your Crown, or ſacrificing the preſent and future Security of your People, and of the Reſt of Europe.

We ſincerely thank your Majeſty for continuing the Earl of Weſtmorland in the Government of this Kingdom, in whoſe Vigilance we can depend for the Preſervation of internal Tranquillity, and under whoſe Adminiſtration the Conſtitution of Ireland has been ſubſtantially improved.

Rob. Thoroton, Cler. Parl. Dom. Com.

His Excellency's Anſwer.

I Will immediately tranſmit this dutiful and loyal Addreſs to be laid before His Majeſty.

To His Excellency John Earl of Weſtmorland, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland,

The humble Addreſs of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

WE, His Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lords Spiritual and Temporal in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to return your Excellency our ſincere Thanks for your excellent Speech from the Throne.

We learn, with the higheſt Satisfaction, that by the Succeſs of His Majeſty's Arms and thoſe of His Allies, the Hopes of France in their unprovoked Declaration of War to impair the Stability or ſhake Conſtitution of Great Britain or Ireland, have been utterly diſappointed.

We receive, with Pleaſure, the Communication which your Excellency is pleaſed to make us, that the Forces of His Majeſty and His Allies are in Poſſeſſion of many important Fortreſſes which belonged to the French, and that many of their oppreſſive and unjuſt Conqueſts have been wreſted from them; and that whilſt the Trade of the Empire has been generally protected, the Reſources which they derived from their wealthy Settlements and extenſive Commerce have been almoſt entirely cut off.

In obſerving that the Spirit of Inſurrection, which was for ſome Time prevalent among ſome of the lower Orders of People, is in general ſuppreſſed, we are called upon to thank the Activity of your Excellency's Adminiſtration; and we are fully confident that no Exertion will be wanting on your Part to bring them to a due Senſe of Order and Subordination, and to prevent and puniſh the Machinations of thoſe who may aim to ſeduce them from their accuſtomed Loyalty into Acts of Sedition and Outrage.

The Militia Law having been carried ſucceſsfully into Execution, we already experience it's ſalutary Effects in the Eſtabliſhment of internal Tranquillity, and of an additonal Force for the Support of the Empire.

We humbly thank your Excellency for acquainting us that His Majeſty has appointed Commiſſioners to execute the Office of Treaſurer of His Majeſty's Exchequer in this Kingdom, in order that the Payment of the Civil Liſt granted to His Majeſty, and a regular Appropriation of the Revenues to diſtinct Services, may be carried into Execution, in a Manner as conformable to the Practice of Great Britain, as the relative Situation of this Kingdom will permit.

This Meaſure, combined with thoſe Acts which paſſed in the laſt Seſſion for regulating Places and Penſions, and ſettling the Revenue of the Crown, will ever diſtinguiſh your Excellency's Adminiſtration.

We return your Excellency our ſincere Thanks for reminding us of the Attention due to the Agriculture, the Manufactures, and particularly the Linen Manufacture, of Ireland; theſe, with the Proteſtant Charter Schools, and other Inſtitutions of Public Utility, ſhall receive our accuſtomed Attention.

We ſhall be happy whenever His Majeſty ſhall be enabled to conclude an honorable Peace, without ſurrendering the Rights of His Crown or ſacrificing the preſent or future Security of His People and of the Reſt of Europe. But your Excellency has ſet before us in a true Light the Nature of the Conteſt in which we are involved by the unjuſt Aggreſſion of France. Our Object is no leſs than the Preſervation of our Religion, our Conſtitution, and of every Principle which upholds ſocial Order, or gives Security to our Perſons and Properties. His Majeſty may place the fulleſt Reliancee upon the Loyalty and Attachment of His People of Ireland, that they will cordially ſupport His Majeſty in reſiſting the deſperate Deſigns of Men, who are endeavouring to erect their own Power and Dominion on the Ruins of Law and Order, and to involve every Government of Europe in a general Scene of Anarchy and Confuſion.

We are confident of the faithful Repreſentations which your Excellency has made of us to His Majeſty, and to our zealous Co-operation with your Excellency in promoting the Welfare of Ireland, we ſhall add our earneſt Endeavours to contribute to the Eaſe and Honor of your Excellency's Adminiſtration.

John Gayer, D. Cler. Parl.

His Excellency's Anſwer.

I Requeſt you to accept my ſincere Thanks for this obliging Addreſs: Your Reſolution to ſupport His Majeſty in Defence of Religion, Liberty and Conſtitution, ſhew your Attachment to the Welfare of your Country.

To His Excellency John Earl of Weſtmorland, Lord Lieutenant General and General Governor of Ireland,

The humble Addreſs of the Knights, Citizens and Burgeſſes, in Parliament aſſembled.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

WE, His Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Ireland, in Parliament aſſembled, beg Leave to lay before your Excellency our cordial Thanks for your moſt excellent Speech from the Throne to both Houſes of Parliament

We congratulate your Excellency that the Hopes of France, in their unprovoked Declaration of War, have been entirely diſappointed by the Arms of His Majeſty and his Allies. We feel aſſured that the Firmneſs of His Majeſty's Throne and the Stability of the Conſtitution of Great Britain and Ireland ſtand unſhaken and unimpaired. We learn, with Satisfaction, that many of the important Fortreſſes which belonged to the French are in Poſſeſſion of His Majeſty and his Allies; that moſt of the oppreſſive Conqueſts of our Enemies have been wreſted from them; and that the Reſources derived from their colonial Opulence and extenſive Commerce have been almoſt entirely tirely cut off, whilſt a general Protection has been afforded to the Trade of His Majeſty's Subjects.

We acknowledge the vigorous Interpoſition of your Excellency's Government, which has ſuppreſſed that Diſpoſition to Inſurrection which was for ſome Time prevalent among ſome of the lower Order of the People, and are perſuaded that no Exertion will be wanting, on your Part, to impreſs on their Minds a due Senſe of Subordination and Order. We ſhall heartily concur in whatever Meaſures may be deemed effectual to defeat or puniſh the Machinations of thoſe who may attempt to ſeduce their accuſtomed Loyalty, and ſtimulate them to Acts of Sedition and Outrage.

We are highly gratified that the Inſtitution of a National Militia has been ſucceſsful, and that the People are reconciled to this conſtitutional Eſtabliſhment: It's ſalutary Effects are univerſally felt in the Return of internal Tranquillity, which it ſecures, and in the Increaſe it has afforded to the Public Force of the Empire.

We are truly pleaſed with your Excellency's Communication from the Throne, that His Majeſty has appointed a Commiſſion, under the Great Seal, to execute the Office of High Treaſurer in this Kingdom, in order that the Payment of the Civil Liſt granted to the King, and a regular Appropriation of the Revenue to diſtinct Services, may be carried into Execution in a Manner as conformable to the Practice of Great Britain as the relative Situation of this Kingdom will permit. When we combine this important Meaſure with thoſe ſalutary Bills of Regulation, which paſſed in the laſt Seſſion, reſpecting the Grants of Offices and Penſions, and the Revenue of the Crown, we muſt be fully convinced of your Excellency's Knowledge of our real Intereſts, and of your efficient Exertions to promote them.

We thank your Excellency for ordering the National Accounts, as well as Eſtimates for the Service of the enſuing Year, to be laid before us. If the Exigencies of the Time ſhall require an extraordinary Supply and additional Reſources, we ſhall not forget that we are engaged in a War of abſolute Neceſſity for the Preſervation of our Liberty, Properties and Religion; and we ſhall, at the ſame Time, conſult the true Intereſt of the Kingdom, and maintain the Honor of His Majeſty's Crown.

We ſhall afford the uſual Support to the Proteſtant Charter Schools and the other Inſtitutions of general Utility, which have been long the Object of our Attention; and we ſhall direct our ſerious Care to promote the Agriculture, the Commerce, the Manufactures, and particularly the Linen Manufacture, of this Kingdom.

His Majeſty's faithful People will continually endeavour to deſerve that Confidence which His Majeſty repoſes in their Loyalty and Attachment: They will maintain their Religion and Conſtitution againſt the unjuſt Aggreſſion of France, and will reſiſt, with their Lives and Fortunes, the Efforts of thoſe deſperate Men, who are endeavouring to erect their Dominion on the Ruins of Law and Order, and to ſpread Confuſion and Anarchy through every Government of Europe.

We are ſincerely convinced that His Majeſty will, in Conjunction with his Allies, uſe every favorable Occaſion to effectuate a deſirable Peace, whenever this great End can be procured without ſurrendering the Honor of his Crown or ſacrificing the preſent or future Security of his People, and of the reſt of Europe.

We are ſenſible of the Fidelity with which your Excellency repreſents our Exertions in His Majeſty's Service; and having experienced the beneficial Effects of your Excellency's Adminiſtration, we entertain an earneſt Hope that His Majeſty may long continue your Excellency in the Government of this Kingdom.

Rob. Thoroton, Cler. Parl. Dom. Com.

His Excellency's Anſwer.

I Return you my warmeſt Thanks for this Addreſs. Your Loyalty and Attachment to the King, and your ſpirited Determination to ſupport His Majeſty againſt the Attack of his Enemies, merit the higheſt Applauſe.
